

Building Stronger, More Positive and Effective Teams

Do you have a great team already, but are looking for ways to improve?

Or is your team dealing with significant challenges and you know that action is required?

Would you like to feel more confident and effective in leading your people well?

If so, you will love this best-practice program based on Ken Warren's 30 years leadership experience, as well as what the research says works.

Who is this training for?

- Middle leaders in the Education, Health, Community Services and Local Government sectors who want to bring out the very best in their team
- Team members aspiring to leadership roles, who want to contribute positively to team morale
- Human Resources professionals and others in coaching roles

Learn how to:

1. Adjust your leadership style for the different personalities in your team.
2. Help team members become happier and more engaged at work.
3. Encourage more open, honest, and respectful communication at work.
4. Deal well with common challenges that can arise in teams.
5. Increase people's openness to feedback and engagement with change.
6. Take the effectiveness of your team to a much higher level.
7. Develop a clear understanding of the values and behaviours that all need to share.
8. Build a team culture that is more open, supportive, and collaborative.

Your registration includes:

- An interactive, enjoyable and practical workshop
- Illustrated notes and bonus resources
- A Certificate of Attendance for your PD records
- Continuous tea / coffee, and a lovely morning tea and lunch
- A great networking opportunity
- Opportunity to speak with Ken both during and after the day

What people are saying

"Today's training with Ken was exceptional. Ken is an outstanding speaker and his presentation will transform the way I lead people."

Brett Shamrock, Head of Junior School, Carinya Christian School, Tamworth

"Ken's presentations to both our leadership team and entire school staff were very well-received by all at our school. His messages were entirely consistent with building on the positive and supportive culture at this school. I am pleased to see people in leadership feeling more confident in their roles and building even stronger, more collaborative, working relationships."

Olivia Rostirolla, Principal, St Francis Xavier School, Mackay

"Ken Warren was a brilliant speaker. After his program, I took a different approach to the 'Sergeant' approach I was considering for a performance-related concern. The team member was able to disclose factors that were contributing, for greater trust to be built, and solutions developed where everyone's needs were taken into account. Overall, a brilliant outcome!"

Corey Watson, Program Coordinator, ARC Disability Support Services, Launceston
